Conservation and Preservation

Goal: To Identify, Document, & Protect Rock Art

BY DIANA ACERSON
What are Coordinators?

- URARA Coordinators are assigned by URARA and work with a specific BLM field office archaeologist to help them identify sites to protect rock art from land use Activities.
- They represent URARA as consulting parties in meetings dealing with rock art protection compliance (section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act).
- Represent URARA’s position with Comment letters.
- Assist in other areas where needed and keep URARA informed of any action needed.
• Oil and Gas
• Pipe Lines
• Solar Farms
• Mining
• Recreation ATV trails, roads, etc.

By Providing Rock Art site information we can help protect sites from destruction or damage from this development.
