President's Letter

By Ben Everitt

The Kanab Symposium is fast approaching. This newsletter provides registration forms for meetings and field trips. VOLUNTEERS are still needed to help with grunt work. Contact Margaret Grochocki, margaret.grochocki@gmail.com, 801-282-5850. We need folks to help with the registration table Friday evening and Saturday, kitchen coffee break duty and cleanup at various times, and maybe taking notes at the auction. If you are coming through Green River, talk to Margaret about picking up some melons. If you would like to lead a field trip, contact Joe Brame, urara.joe.brame@gmail.com, 801-993-4007.

If you have issues or concerns, write me a note and we'll get it on the membership meeting agenda, rockdoc@xmission.com, 801-244-0070.

Utah Lake Site Protection Fieldtrip

Contact: Randal Griffin. BLM Ranger (off.) 801-977-4314 (cell) 801-550-1007

On September 27, 2014, the BLM Salt Lake Field Office will be sponsoring a project as part of the BLM's annual Public Lands Day event that will help protect a Native American rock art site in Utah County, UT. The event will be from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. and will involve building a wooden buck and pole fence to encourage people not to shoot into the site. In addition to the fence, the Boys Scouts of America will be installing a bulletin board near the highway leading to the site on which information will be posted about protecting this type of resource. Informational signs on how to protect the resource will also be installed at the site.

The location of the event will be between milepost 18 and 19 on the west side of State Route 68 just south of Saratoga Springs, UT. Anyone interested in participating in the event will need to wear closed toed shoes and it is recommended to wear long pants, a long sleeve shirt and a hat. It is also recommended that participants bring sunscreen and a pair of work gloves. Water and water containers will be provided. The first 100 participants to sign up will receive a free 2014 Public Lands Day t-shirt.

In addition, an opportunity to take a guided tour of land belonging to the Archaeological Conservancy nearby will also be available. This site is directly across from the BLM site and has a tremendous variety of pristine rock art on the site. The Conservancy, in order to promote public awareness of the rock art resources that exist in this area, is allowing a group of up to 20 people to be guided onto the site by URARA member Steve Manning, who, along with his wife, recently completed the survey work on this property. A sign up sheet will be available when people sign up for the BLM project on this date. The tour will commence after the completion of the BLM event at 12:00 p.m. and only be open to a total group size of 20 people.

San Rafael Documentation Fieldtrip

Contact: Troy Scotter 801-377-6901 troycotter@gmail.com

On September 27, 2014, the BLM Price Field Office will be sponsoring a project to document rock art in the San Rafael Swell. We will spend Saturday the 27th documenting sites in Short Canyon with Amber Koski, archeologist at the Price BLM office. On Sunday the 28th URARA members can visit any of the spectacular nearby rock art sites. We will determine the sites to visit based on the interests of participants on Saturday.

High clearance vehicles are required; four wheel drive is not. Access is mostly on highways and high quality dirt roads, but high clearance may be required for short distances on Saturday and is likely necessary for Sunday. Some of the roads in the region are deeply rutted and fall monsoon rains can change road conditions overnight.

We will meet at the park in the town of Emery at 9:00 a.m. on Saturday. The park is on Main Street (Highway 10) between Center Street and 100 West. Emery is 13 miles north of the I-70 or 13 miles south of Ferron on Highway 10. The closest motels are in Ferron and Castledale. There are un-serviced areas to camp near Short Canyon. Those wishing to camp there on Friday night should let Troy know and we will meet you rather than having you come to Emery.

Persons interested in participating do not need experience in documentation. You will find it is easy to do and those with experience will be happy to help you. You should be able to hike a couple of miles. There will be minor elevation gain. There are talus slopes in Short Canyon (approximately 50 feet high) and short hikes (combined total 4-6 miles) and moderate elevation on Sunday depending on the selected sites. Appropriate footwear, long pants, long sleeve shirt, hat, and sunscreen are encouraged. URARA and the BLM will supply the necessary materials for the documentation. You will need to provide food and water.

There is a limit of 12 participants in this event. You need to register with Troy Scotter. I will send additional instructions to registered participants.

Fillmore Field Trip Report (July 12-13)

By Steve Acerson

The field trip leaders, Oscar, Steve and Diana, were joined by Terry Swanson, who drove from Phoenix to see the sites. We knew the heat was going to be a consideration, so most of the sites we visited were close to the vehicles with little walking distance. Even so, the temperature was around 100 degrees and shade was sought out, and we usually had other critters to cool off with.

With plenty of water we drove all over the country west of Fillmore, filling the cameras with images of those who habituated this area before the trains and ranchers showed up. Collard lizards questioned our passing, turkey vultures soared and wished for their next meal, and water bottles seemed to hold less water. Despite these obstacles our small band was able to visit sites between Milford and Fillmore that filled both days with wonder of how the people existed in this area, and amazed us with the detail and range of symbols that were located in very remote but accessible locations. As always with me, I draw the same conclusion; there must have been more water during that phase of human existence.

Another listing of hotels can be found at the website: <http://www.tripadvisor.com/hotels-g57030-kanab-utah-hotels.html>

Camping

Kanab has several in-town campgrounds with restrooms, water and electrical hookups and wi-fi, but most get highway noise. Google "Kanab Utah Camping."

Pipesprings National Monument (25 miles from Kanab) also has a campground operated by the Kaibab Band of Paiute Indians. They do not take reservations. You check in at the store regarding availability. For additional information, please call the Pipe Springs National Monument at 928-643-7105, the Paiute tribal office at 928-643-7245, or the Pipe Springs Chevron gas station at 928-643-6040.

Field trips

Proposed field trips include some of the well-known public sites such as the South Fork of Indian Canyon as well as privately owned sites. There will be trips for all abilities, from easy (Fredonia clamshell and waterglyphs), to strenuous (Snake Gulch), to very strenuous (Shaman's Gallery). If you missed the spring URARA Rock Art Rendezvous at Page, there will be re-visits to some of those sites.

The list of field trips will be sent to your email or via mail to those who receive paper Vestiges on September 1, 2014. We do not list the field trips on our website to avoid indexing by search engines.

Field trip registration forms will be included with this list. Please return your registration prior to September 20th. Indicate multiple preferences in case your first choice has already been filled. Contact Joe Brame if you have questions regarding field trips. urara.joe.brame@gmail.com

Presentations

We are excited to have Steve Freers as our keynote speaker for this conference. Steve Freers has been involved in rock art research and conservation for the past 25 years. He is co-author of two rock art books, Rock Art of the Grand Canyon Region and Facing Images, a book on Southern California rock art. He served for five years as the senior editor of the American Rock Art Research Association.

Other presenters include Matt Zweifel, Don Christensen, Von Del Chamberlain, Richard Jenkinson, David Sucec, Nal Morris, and Ekkehart Malotki.

Tools Session

This year we are bringing back the Tools Sessions which will be held Sunday afternoon. The sessions include: GPS (Joe Brame), site documentation (Pam & Quent Baker & Leigh Grench), Dstretch (Bonnie Moser), and acoustic documentation (Steve Waller).

Auction

Carol Garner reminds us that it's time to think about donations for the silent auction. Think of something rock art-related and interesting, educational, exciting, or just plain funny that you can bring to add to the fun(d) raising. As usual, Dell Crandall and Larry Evans will be reigning, explaining, and entertaining! For any questions or to send a donation if you are not able to attend, contact Margaret Grochocki 801-282-5850 or Margaret.Grochocki@gmail.com

URARA Business Meeting

Symposium is our only time when the majority of members all gather in one place. It is our time to meet and organize ourselves. Half of our Board of Directors cycle off every year in accordance with our bylaws. We are always interested in new people who are interested in serving on the Board or are willing to help with the many other jobs we have such as:

- Helping with field trips
- Accounting
- Communication and assistance with our Vestiges newsletter
- Maintaining our membership database
- Helping out with documentation projects
- Serving on our conservation group which gets involved with the many projects that impact rock art in Utah

- Working with the symposium committee

If you would like more information on any of these topics, would like to “throw your hat into the ring”, or simply have an agenda item for the business meeting, please contact Ben Everitt at rockdoc@xmission.com .

Preliminary Business Meeting agenda:

- Election of board members
- Treasurer’s report
- Membership report
- Field trip summary and discussion of the “Rock Art Rendezvous” at Page
- Discussion of the proposed Utah rock art site database
- Other business as may appear
